

Michela Tonti is a teacher-researcher at the Università degli Studi di Bergamo. She is the author of a monograph published in April 2020 by l'Harmattan, winning the Laboratorio@francesisti.it prize awarded by the SUSLLF. The title of her book is Le nom de marque dans le discours au quotidien : prisme lexiculturel et linguistique with a preface by Professor John Humbley.

His research areas are: corpus linguistics, computer-mediated discourse analysis, referential semantics, commercial onomastics in lexicultural, linguistic and legal perspective. Terminology and especially neonymy in the fields of European law, accounting and gender equality have been the subject of several works.

She loves fine arts, exhibitions and sharing, as well as working in an efficient team like the E-MIMIC group.